Henri Lloyd Falmouth Week Deemed a Great Success

Henri-Lloyd Falmouth Week has been heralded as a great success with thousands of visitors and Cornish residents enjoying the extensive programme for the week.

One of Henri Lloyd Falmouth Weeks main objectives was to ensure there was something for everyone of all ages and this has clearly been achieved, there have been many positive comments about the various events that took place throughout the week from the 'One man has his dinghy' to 'The Red Arrows'.

The carnival raised the most money it has ever achieved for local good causes of £2000 and the effort that all participants put into their outfits was superb. For 2010 there were many events happening across the town from the 1000 Surf Life Saving competitors on Gyllyngvase Beach to the many events on the Moor and Events Square, the feedback so far has been that it was great that the event was spread across the town as a whole.

Richard Gates, Falmouth Town Manager and Chair of the Henri Lloyd Falmouth Week Shore-side Committee adds his thanks 'I would personally like to thank all members of the Henri Lloyd Falmouth Week Shore-side committee for all their efforts to help make the week run smoothly, it takes a huge amount of planning and co-ordinating and without the focus of all involved the week would not be such a success. I would also like to thank everyone that took part in the week'.

Henri Lloyd Falmouth Week 2011 will be 6th to 13th August, with planning starting over the next couple of months.
