An incident involving cargo ship Baltic Sea occurred today at approximately 10am (29.11.11) off Penance Point, near Maenporth, Falmouth.

The 88m vessel was dragging her anchor and was in danger of running aground at Penance Point. The pilot boat LK Michel, which is operated by Falmouth Harbour Commissioners, went to the scene and her pilot boarded the Baltic Sea.

Falmouth Harbour Master, Captain Mark Sansom said: “This was a potentially serious incident but fortunately the vessel did not ground, sustained no damage and was making her way back out to sea by 11.10am.”
